

Thermal Solar Energy Collection

Contributed by Tim Castleman

The 34 acre "NW lagoon" study area (shaded in on the railyards map) was deemed too toxic to clean up in 1995 and the remediation plan agreed to with UPRR was to "cap" this area and place a deed restriction on it allowing industrial use only. The water treatment plant is directly to the North, the freeway to the West.